

POLICY OF RULES AND TERMS OF USE

1. Responsible Use of the Vessel

- 1.1. The vessel must be used solely for recreational purposes and in accordance with current regulations.
- 1.2. The renter agrees to use the vessel as if it were their own, following the rules of good seamanship and respecting the applicable navigation regulations.
- 1.3. It is the renter's responsibility to maintain the vessel and all its facilities in good condition.
- 1.4. Subleasing or transferring the vessel to third parties without express authorization from the company is prohibited.

2. Navigation Area

- 2.1. The renter must respect the navigation area limits specified in the vessel's documentation.
- 2.2. In case of wanting to alter the designated route, express authorization will be required prior to departure.

3. Maximum Capacity and Onboard Safety

- 3.1. The number of passengers may not exceed the maximum authorized capacity for the vessel.
- 3.2. Only those individuals listed in the passenger list provided in advance to the company may board.
- 3.3. All passengers must follow the instructions of the captain or authorized personnel at all times.
- 3.4. The use of life jackets is mandatory in situations indicated by the crew.
- 3.5. The towing of objects such as floaters, donuts, or other similar devices is prohibited, unless authorization.

4. Behavior Onboard

- 4.1. Proper and respectful behavior towards the crew and other passengers is expected.
- 4.2. Excessive consumption of alcohol and the use or possession of illegal substances onboard are not allowed.
- 4.3. The use of sound equipment should be moderate to avoid affecting the experience of other passengers or causing disturbances at ports and anchorages.

5. Environmental Protection

- 5.1. It is strictly prohibited to throw trash or any kind of waste into the sea. The containers available on the vessel must be used.
- 5.2. Fishing or handling marine wildlife is not allowed without express authorization.
- 5.3. Protected areas must be respected, and anchoring in sensitive areas for marine flora and fauna must be avoided.

6. Use of Facilities and Equipment

- 6.1. Passengers must handle the vessel's facilities and equipment with care. Any damage caused by negligence will be the user's responsibility.
- 6.2. The use of open flames, including barbecues or any equipment that may pose a fire risk, is prohibited unless expressly authorized.

7. Weather Conditions and Safety

- 7.1. The company or the captain may modify the itinerary or cancel the outing if weather conditions compromise the safety of the experience.
- 7.2. In adverse conditions, all passengers must follow the captain's instructions without exception.

8. Renter's Responsibility

- 8.1. The renter is responsible for any damage or loss incurred on the vessel, except those attributable to third parties.
- 8.2. Any loss or breakage of the vessel's equipment will be the renter's responsibility, who must cover the repair or replacement costs, including an additional 20% for management fees.
- 8.3. If the vessel is damaged due to the customer's actions or negligence, the customer will be required to cover the cost of the repairs.

9. Accidents and Incident Notification

- 9.1. In the event of an accident or incident onboard, the renter must immediately notify the lessor, detailing the circumstances, causes, and consequences.
- 9.2. An accident report must be completed in writing, including the details of those involved and, if possible, the witnesses.
- 9.3. An accident is understood to be any unforeseen, spontaneous, external, violent event, independent of the will of the person affected.

10. Consequences of Non-compliance

- 10.1. Failure to comply with these rules may result in the early termination of the experience with no right to a refund.
- 10.2. In severe cases, the company reserves the right to deny access to future charter experiences.

11. Jurisdiction and Dispute Resolution

11.1. For any issues regarding the compliance with this policy, both parties submit to the jurisdiction of the Courts of Pontevedra, Spain, with express waiver of any other jurisdiction.

12. Acceptance of Terms and Conditions

- 12.1. The signature of the lessor and renter on this document signifies acceptance by both parties of the specific and general terms and conditions set forth herein.
- 12.2. The renter expressly declares that they have read, understood, and accepted all the general terms of the rental, as well as being aware of the current general and local maritime regulations.
